J. E. Curry Chief of Police

Bo: Shooting of Lee Harvey Ocvald

Bir.

B. S. Clardy was interrieved by Lieutenants C. C. Wallace and P. G. McCaghren at 9:20 an on Kovember 50, 1965. The interriev was essentially the same as his original report dated Kovember 27, 1965. The following was added by T. B. Clarke 1997.

After the shot was fired, I went to the 58 floor with the prisoner. He was being questioned by several officers, and as I recall, the officers were Glann King, Sgt. P. H. Dean, and Hr. Sorrels of the Secret Service. When saked why he did it, he replied, "Somebody had to do it, ya'll couldn'ts."

When asked how he got in, he said that he walked by the officer on the ramy when he turned to talk to Rio Pierce, who drawe out the entrance. He said he heard somebody yell, "Hey you." He didn't know where it came from, so he dunked hie head and kept walking.

He also told ue that he cent $25,00 by wire to a girl in Ft. Worth.

He said also that it was a spur of the moment thing and it was a million to one chance that he got down there at the actual time Oswald was brought down.

I have been interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They talked to me Monday around 2:30. I gave then the same information I have given here.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. Vallace, Moutenant Juvenile Bureau

P. G. McCaghren, Lieutenant Burglary & Thoft Bureau
